

Lesotho -The story so far

Local physiotherapist Jan Jeffrey provides an update on her work supporting children in Lesotho, on Friday 22nd November at 7.30pm in the English Chapel. An invaluable opportunity to see and hear first-hand about the needs of others. Refreshments provided.

English Chapel

Sunday 15th December at 4pm in the English Chapel, Aberdyfi: Carols by Candlelight - a traditional celebration of the good news of Christmas.

Community Lunches

The Neuadd Dyfi Community Lunches will take place on the 2nd Friday of each month until Easter. This is definitely not an "old folks" do! Everyone from the community is welcome. Bring your own wine if you wish. This is an excellent opportunity to meet up with friends once a month during the long winter months. No need to book (except at Christmas) so just come along!

The lunches are organised by Aberdyfi Churches and Chapels. Any profits go into the local community. We look forward to seeing friends old and new this winter.

Give Blood - Save a Life In 2020

The mobile blood transfusion service is back in the village for the winter, to be held as usual in the Neuadd Dyfi. Make a difference, book your appointment now on 0800 252266 or go online at www.welsh-blood.org.uk

Do something amazing - give blood and save a life.

BOOK EARLY TO AVOID DISAPPOINTMENT

Four short pieces of dance from Wales which are paired with discussion to help you get to the heart of the stories, and learn behind-the-scenes secrets.

Rygbî: Annwyl i mi / Dear to me by Fearghus Ó Conchúir celebrates rugby in Wales and was created with input from rugby fans and players across Wales so that the dance really echoes the sport.

Écrit by Nikita Goile was inspired by a letter from artist Frida Kahlo to her partner Diego and is a beautiful power struggle that reflects the ups and downs of passionate relationships.

Why Are People Clapping!? by Ed Myhill is set to composer Steve Reich's Clapping Music and the dancers use movement and clapping to create the soundtrack to the fun, dynamic dance.

Codi is by Anthony Matsena who grew up in Swansea and is about Welsh people who come together to tackle isolation and depression during troubled times
